Sweet angel Ann Freeman with her daughter, Jenny Sparks.

Pastor Vicki Bohannon and residents performed a magical live nativity and concert to celebrate the holiday season with our staff and families. Rehab team members

Suzanne May and Paul Crist, with Functional Pathways, played Mary and Joseph, and Amanda Hill's sweet little Cameron was baby Jesus.

The beautiful voices of the Marian Manor choir included Brenda Shore, Mary Spencer, Robert Allen, Jake Steinfeld, Mel Pritchard, Ellen Pritchard, Naomi Moore, Anna Edison, Ann Enlow, Lori Wack, and Ellen Becker.

Crafting Success

Every weekend in December, our craft show was open for holiday shopping. For months, resident art teacher Nancy Milner and residents made a variety of holiday decorations, dog treats, and ornaments. Volunteer Artist Kay Kerr shared her passion for art and creativity with holiday ornaments, beach-themed woodwork, and glass art. We also held a raffle for a beautiful, handmade quilt, won by resident Hubert Dupree. Our creative endeavors will continue as proceeds from the sales will provide funding for future art classes!

Mark Twain once said, “Find a job you enjoy doing, and you will never have to work a day in your life.”

In other words, the right profession will put a smile on your face! Our community is fortunate to have not just two occupational therapists but four! Two may be retired, but you can tell from their smiles that they were pleased with their life's work.

Honking in the Holidays

Our festive holiday car parade was back again for all to enjoy! We welcomed families, community partners, and local city officials to help us spread holiday cheer to our residents. Virginia Beach Mayor Bobby Dyer, Sheriff Rocky Holcomb, City Treasurer Leigh Henderson, and several new friends participated this year! As usual, the Mounted Police were a huge hit, and everyone had a blast.
